

River City Athletics Announces Major Partnership with Acadia Federal Credit Union – River City Athletics is thrilled to announce a significant new naming rights agreement with Acadia Federal Credit Union. As part of this collaboration, the center logo of the Premier Field within the Quirk Sportsplex project will now proudly feature Acadia Federal Credit Union branding.

This partnership marks a milestone in the development of the Quirk Sportsplex project, signaling strong community support and a shared commitment to local athletics. "We are pleased to welcome Acadia Federal Credit Union to the team," said MJ Ball, Executive Director, at River City Athletics. "Their support of the Premier Field center logo demonstrates a dedication to youth sports and community wellness that aligns perfectly with our mission."

"At Acadia, our mission has always been to enrich lives and strengthen the communities we serve. Youth sports play a vital role in that work. They promote wellness, resilience, and belonging, and they give young people a foundation to build bright futures. We're proud to partner with River City Athletics on a project that will make a real and lasting difference," said Joey Cannan, President and CEO of Acadia Federal Credit Union.

If interested in a naming right, an advertising opportunity or to join the Quirk Sportsplex Donor Wall, please contact MJ Ball at 207.991.8940 or mjball517@gmail.com. To learn more about River City Athletics, please visit www.rivercitymaine.com. To learn more about Acadia Federal Credit Union and their products and services, please visit <https://www.acadiafcu.org/>